Mr. Brian T. Pellicano

A Note from Our Pastor,

Many thanks to those who participated in the Holy Hour for Life at St. Elizabeth Church last Wednesday evening. I was honored to be invited by Fr. Zukas to preside and preach at that service, and I was glad that St. Agatha Parish was well represented there. Two weekends from now, our own St. Agatha Respect Life Committee will hold a Respect Life Baby Show-er where all of us will have the opportunity to gather together for refreshments and conversation and to donate articles of clothing, other necessary items, or money to support pregnant women in challenging circumstances to choose life for their unborn child.

This week is Catholic Schools Week, and our St. Agatha School students and their families will be present and serving at the 9am Family Mass this Sunday the 28th. Immediately after Mass we welcome families who are considering St. Agatha School for their children, as well as any other folks who would like to have a tour of the School, to come to an Open House this Sunday from 10am until noon. Come and see all the wonderful things happening at St. Agatha School and meet members of our School community.

This past Tuesday I was able to attend the St. Agatha School Spelling Bee, and was very impressed with the performance of our students from grades 5 to 8 in the Bee. There were some very challenging words, but the boys and girls acquitted themselves extremely well. One representative of each of these 4 grades will take part in the Regional Spelling Bee in a week and a half or so at St. Francis School in Braintree. My only disappointment was that my favorite word, from the first movie I ever saw in a movie theater as a child, was not one of the words for these contestants. The word? "Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious!" A prize goes to the first person (age 14 and under) I see after Mass who names the movie that featured this word!

In our Church Calendar this week we celebrate on Wednesday the memorial of St. John Bosco who lived in the 19th century and founded the Salesian Order whose primary mission is educating youth, and is known as the "Apostle of Youth." He was also a great promoter of vocational training, is patron saint of editors, and was the first canonized saint to have a national holiday in his honor in Italy. Some may remember that Wednesday used to be known as "Prince Spaghetti Day," so we could reinstate that at least for this week in honor of St. John Bosco.

On Friday we observe the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord in the Temple of Jerusalem shortly after His birth. Candles are blessed to commemorate Christ as the "Light for all the nations." In some parts of the world this marks the 40th and last day of the Christmas Season. On Saturday we remember 2 saints.

First, the less well known St. Ansgar, a member of the Benedictine Order, bishop of Hamburg in Germany, known as the "Apostle of the North, since he was a missionary to Sweden and Denmark. Then there is the very well known St. Blaise, bishop in Armenia, martyred in the early 4th century, and remembered for a miraculous healing of a severe illness of the throat. Here at St. Agatha's we'll bless throats at the Masses on Saturday, his feast day, and then at the Sunday Masses.

Have a blessed week.

Fr. Palardy

The second collection, Support of the Church Around the World, will assist Catholic Relief Services (CRS), the Church in Latin America (CLA), the Church in Africa and in Central and Eastern Europe and three important national Catholic missions: the Military Archdiocese, Home Missions, and the Black and Indian Missions.

Your generosity will help fund the spiritual, educational and humanitarian needs of the Church around the world.

All Masses for Sunday, February 4th will be offered for Prayer and Penance at the request of Cardinal Sean. The Mass is being held in response to a call from Pope Francis for all episcopal conferences across the world to have a Day of Prayer and Penance in recognition of harm done by clergy sexual abuse within the church. It will be an opportunity to express repentance for the sins of the church, to pray for all those who were abused, and to pray for continued healing for all those impacted by the abuse including those who were abused, families, members of our church, and the community at large.

At the 9:00am Family Mass, comments addressing this issue will be appropriate for families.

FEATURED WEEKLY READING

THE WEEKLY UPDATE

Read Reflect Respond

THEME: Jesus has power over evil.

As you hear today’s Gospel with its shouting demons, what words or phrases strike you? What in this reading touches your heart?

Gospel: Mark 1: 21-28

Then they came to Capernaum, and on the sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and taught.

The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes. In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit; he cried out, “What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!”

Jesus rebuked him and said, “Quiet! Come out of him!” The unclean spirit convulsed him and with a loud cry came out of him. All were amazed and asked one another, “What is this? A new teaching with authority. He commands even the unclean spirits and they obey him.”

His fame spread everywhere throughout the whole region of Galilee.

Pastoral Planning

January 28 ~ Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mark makes clear in today’s Gospel that Jesus spoke with a different kind of authority, unlike the Scribes of his day. Jesus taught with a certainty that spoke to them of God. To hear someone speak like this was like a breeze from heaven. Jesus’ words, his deeds and his response to those in need astonished and amazed them. Do we let ourselves be astonished and amazed when we hear Jesus speak to us? Take some time this week to recall the words in today’s gospel that may have amazed you.

Last week marked the anniversary of an important milestone in the history of St. Agatha Parish. Believe it or not January 15th was the NINTH anniversary of the opening of the renovated spaces in the Lower Church. I know that time seems to be flying by, but when I looked at the Occupancy Certificate I had to just shake my head. Since January of 2009, daily Masses have been celebrated in St. Agatha Chapel which is a beautiful and peaceful worship space. The Gathering Space, Kitchen and Parish Library/ Meeting Room have accommodated hundreds and hundreds of events serving parishioners of all ages, both formally and informally. From Faith Formation, Edge, Life Teen and Confirmation sessions, to Baptism Preparation Classes, to Family Mass Receptions, to Legion of Mary meetings, to luncheons after special Masses in the Chapel (e.g. Mass of Anointing), to school meetings — the list just goes on and on. In fact these spaces have proven to be such a tremendous asset to our Parish community that it’s hard to imagine what it was like before we had them available! Even the renovated restroom facilities recall the days when a single barely functioning restroom served the entire Church! None of it would have been possible without your generosity, and the entire Parish should look at this accomplishment with pride and thanksgiving. And we certainly have to remember to appreciate this resource and guard against ever taking it for granted. We are blessed in so many way, and this is surely one of them.

As you can see below, we just barely missed our weekly target. I think it’s safe to say we can blame the Patriots, because the 5:00 Mass was sparsely attended for some reason! Hopefully this week we’ll resume our winning ways as the Patriots prepare to so the same!
